Fifth Ward Populists Nominate a Woman

TO SUPPORT THEIR PRINCIPLES

As a Member of the Board of Education, K. Salisbury Nominated School Election Notes.

The people's party of the fifth ward held a caucus in Diamond hall last night for the purpose of nominating a candidate for school trustee. The caucus was well attended. Frank Karsch was elected chairman and George Karsch was chosen secretary. James E. McLeary, John Hutton and William Nix were appointed a committee on resolutions, and they submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, we deem it advisable to make the school trustees directly responsible to a political organization, so that the demands of such organization shall be their guide and also

Whereas, the election of school trustees in the past, after a self nomination or a citizens' nomination, has left the trustees free to exercise their individual judgments, without reference to the voters and needs of a great majority of their constituents. Therefore

Resolved, that we place in nomination tonight a citizen of the fifth ward who is a pronounced advocate of the demands of organized labor, and who will never vote for any tax book or other measure of an expensive and unnecessary nature to oppress the poor and working class.

The name of Mrs. Mary E. Bryant was the only one presented and she was nominated without opposition. Mrs. Bryant was formerly teacher in the city schools.

At a meeting of the women of the first ward, held at the residence of Mrs. Eliza Blyden, No. 353 South Division street, yesterday afternoon, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the women of the first ward should support a candidate for member of the board of education at the coming election.

Resolved, That we favor the election of Laet K. Salisbury as member of said board.

All women of the fifth ward interested in the school election are invited to meet at No. 21 East Leonard street at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

There seems to be no clear idea regarding who should and who should not register for the coming school election. It should be fully understood that no previous registration counts in the present election and anyone who wishes to vote must register before doing so.

The report that the woman candidate for school trustee in the fifth ward has withdrawn is false, as she is still in the field.

Tried to Kidnap His Children.

No. 128 Webster street and the immediate vicinity was very much excited Tuesday afternoon over an attempted kidnapping escapade. Mrs. McFar runs a boarding house at No. 128 Webster street, having separated from her husband. The courts have given Mrs. McFar custody of the two children, a girl of 13 and a boy of 8 years. Mr. McFar has made threats that he would steal the children, and Tuesday he made an unsuccessful attempt. He was seen hanging about the house and Deputy Sheriff Gilden was sent to watch him. It was not found necessary to make an arrest, as the children were secreted where he could not find them. McFar lives in Lake View.

Salesmen Will Be in Line.

The members of the Salesmen's union held a meeting last night to make plans for taking part in the Labor day celebration. It was decided to wear black suits, black caps, white neckties and button-hole bouquets and carry canes. Ely Fishman, George Argard and Fred Platte were appointed marshals. CASH VIA THE POST

Money Order Business Largely Exceeds Last Year.

EVERYBODY USES THE MAIL

Transmissions Assume Gigantic Proportions Since Banks Became Unfriendly to Drafts and Checks.

The money order department at the post office is doing a hand office business nowadays. The receipts of that department have exceeded those of last summer by a good round sum and the business is still increasing. C. E. Lockwood, clerk of the money order department and to a reporter for The Herald yesterday: "The work of this office has increased to a considerable extent this summer. Banks throughout the country have refused to cash bank drafts and persons who have occasion to remit money for business and private purposes have purchased money orders. Merchants in small towns who owe bills to wholesale houses in the city instead of remitting by a draft send the amount in a money order. Business men remit to their traveling salesmen by money order and traveling men send funds to their families through the same source. Frequently persons attending the world's fair require more money than they expected and when they run short of funds send home for money. The required amount is forwarded by money order. So far we have paid more money this year than we have received and the amount varies from day to day. The receipts run from $500 to $2,000 per day. The increase over former years is due to the position taken by the banks of the country in refusing to cash drafts, and as a medium of remittance the people are compelled to resort to money orders.

Excursions Galore.

Both the G. & W. and the C. & W. M. are making preparations to take one of the great excursions of Macabees that will attend the grand encampment here. September 12, the G. & W. will run three excursions to this city, one from the north, one from the south and one from Muskegon. Today the C. & W. M. will run its annual excursion from La Crosse to Potosky, and the G. & W. will run one from Richmond and intermediate points. The passenger traffic on the local roads is increasing every day. In spite of the exodus from the north, a large number of persons are going, there are no reflections on the travel is the heaviest it has been this year, and the railroad officials are growing more encouraged.

Fruit for the Chicago Exhibit.

The Hon. L. M. Weston and Alfred J. Brown are determined that the Michigan fruit and vegetable exhibit at the world's fair shall cast no reflection on the state. They are following the practice of the early bird and get out on the market at 4 o'clock every morning to select the best the market contains to ship to Chicago. There is between $3,000 and $4,000 belonging to the former exhibit that will not be used for that purpose and Mr. Weston will expend the money for fruit if necessary to secure a creditable display of fruit and vegetables.

Business Reviving in the East.

Ex-Ambassador L. M. Turner returned from Washington and points in the east last evening. After having attended the opening of congress Mr. Turner visited New York and other eastern cities. While speaking of the condition of business in the east he said a decided improvement for the better was noticed within the last few days. Money is easier and everybody is feeling that a relief from the stringency is near at hand.

Bicyclists From Abroad.

Secretary Whitney of the West Michigan agricultural society received applications yesterday from Cincinnati and Washington, D. C., for blank applications for entries for the bicycle races which will take place at the fair on Friday, September 22. Applications for stock exhibit blanks are also being received in large numbers.

Will Lecture to Teachers.

Professor Delos Fall of Albion college, will deliver a lecture tonight to the teachers who are attending the institute. His subject has not yet been announced. Professor Fall is a vigorous thinker and an interesting talker. There was a slight falling off in the attendance at the institute yesterday; something over 300 teachers were present at the session. The regular program was carried out with no essential variation.

He's a Valuable Assistant.

A new deputy city marshal was sworn in yesterday morning. For some time the need of another assistant has been apparent, as Assistant Burriel seemed overworked. Yesterday morning, he sent word to the office that he would not be able to work during the day, but stated that he had just sworn in a deputy who would, as soon as he had the ropes learned, be a valuable addition to the marshal's force. Mr. and Mrs. Burriel have been married twelve years and are delighted with their boy. Their numerous friends will congratulate them on the addition to their family.

State Band Tournament.

A band tournament open to every band in the state will be held here on Tuesday, September 12, on the day of the great camp review of Macabees. The bands will be interspersed in the monster street parade and the excellence of the music will be determined by the judges as the procession passes Campau square. The prizes offered are $100, $75 and $50 in cash. It has been erroneously announced heretofore that this tournament would be held on Wednesday at the Kent county fair grounds at the time of the great Macabee turnout at the fair.

Russians in Distress.

A family of Russian Jews arrived in the city two days ago and are now quartered at Lampman's, No. 70 Canal street, and one of the children is sick with the measles. They came from Philadelphia and though sick with measles were allowed to come here by the health department of that city.

Dennis Ryan Recovering.

Dennis Ryan, who was injured in a runaway accident during the circus procession Monday, is improving, and Dr. Kelly says he will recover if inflammation does not set in.

Bank Clearings.

Yesterday's bank clearings amounted to $87,628.53, a decrease of $51,473.43 as compared with corresponding day of last year.

It is Strange.

That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain, lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.
